

I call on you immediately and unconditionally drop all charges against Sirikan Charoensiri.

I urge the authorities to protect the independence of lawyers and their freedom to defend their clients without fear of prosecution or any other forms of retaliation.

And I call on the authorities to end the repression of peaceful dissent in Thailand, and to respect and protect the human rights to freedom of expression, association and peaceful assembly.

Yours respectfully,