

I am writing to express my deep concern about Elena Klimova, who was charged with “propaganda of non-traditional sexual relations”;

I urge you to drop the charges against Elena Klimova and to abstain from prosecuting any person under Russia’s homophobic legislation

I also urge you to repeal the “propaganda” law which is being used to clamp down on freedoms of expression, assembly and association of LGBTI community and those who support them.

Respectfully yours,